INVITATION

To commemorate the 70th anniversary of the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights we are pleased to invite you to the Seminar "Human Trafficking in Europe – Trends and Development" which will take place from 12:30-17:20 on Tuesday, 17 April, at the Tamm Conference hall of the Ministry of Social Affairs (Suur-Ameerika 1, 10122 Tallinn).

Human Trafficking, the trade of humans for the purpose of forced labour, sexual slavery, or commercial sexual exploitation for the trafficker or others, is thought to be one of the fastest-growing activities of trans-national criminal organisations. According to the International Labour Organisation, forced labour generates an estimated $ 150 billion of profits per annum (2014).

Panel discussion with Brigade General Gerald Tatzgern, Head of Central Service Combating Human Smuggling and Human Trafficking (Austria), Colonel Ágnes Németh, Chief of Crime Prevention Department, Hungarian National Police (Hungary), Kristiina Luht, Adviser, Department of Equality Policies, Ministry of Social Affairs (Estonia) and Anu Leps, Adviser, Criminal Policy Department, Ministry of Justice (Estonia) followed by the film "Viktoria: A Tale of Grace and Greed".

The seminar will be conducted in English language.
